ALEXANDER IS SIGNED BY QUAKER CITY CLUB

Grover Cleveland Put Under Two-Year Contract After Talk with Baker.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 21.—After another long debate today with President Baker and Manager Pat Moran, Grover Cleveland Alexander finally came to terms with the Phillies and put his signature. signature to a two-year contract.

Neither Baker and Alexander or Moran would say what the exact figures were on the contract, but it was said that a compromise had been agreed upon between Baker and Alexander and that tween Baker and Alexander and that $12,500 brought the big pitcher to terms. In the conference held with Baker yesterday Alexander positively refused to accept the $10,000 offer Baker made him and left in a huff. Last night friends of the two got them together again after the sporting writers' banquet but Baker refused to advance his bloone cent over $10,000 and Alexander refused to listen to a compromise.

fused to listen to a compromise.

Today, however, when Moran suggested to the two warring principals to draw up a two-year contract calling for $12,500 both Baker and Alexander agreed and the great pitcher was not long in putting his signature to the bit of parchment. This makes Alexander the highest paid pitcher in baseball. Walter Johnson is reputed as having drawn down $12,000 from the Washington Club and he was always regarded as the best-paid hurler in the game.

Following the meeting Alexander issued a statement in which he said that he never had had any differences with President Baker and that he had been fairly treated throughout the con-President Baker and throughout the confairly treated throughout the confairly treated throughout the emerged from the meeting with Baker in anything but an amiable mood.

WITHOUT ARCHER

Chicago, Feb. 21.—Minus Jimmy Archer, the Cub Special is en route to Pasadens, Cal., today bearing about thirty bal-players and some three score "hangersmere stockholders, sporting writers and "bugs."

Archer was at the station for an eleventh-hour conference with Weeghman and Manager Mitchell, but was unable to agree to their terms. A fattering offer as a battery-mate for Grover Alexander on a "circus team" has been tendered him, Archer hinted.

BOXING LAW REPEAL MAY NOT GO THROUGH

Albany, Feb. 21.—With the legislature a state of doubt, the repeal of the mine back in the old conditions under which fake "clubs" gave exhibitions subject to no regulation whatever. In view of this many members have

Chancellor Day After Bill Hollenbach's Scalp

Syracuse, N. Y., Feb. 21.—The re-elec-on of William Hollenbach, former Pennsylvanian star, to succeed himself as head coach of the Syracuse University football team by the athletic governing board on December 2, was against the wishes of Chancellor James R. Day, head of the university, and it was learned here last night that Dr. Day will use his veto power to oust Hollenbach. Dr. Day has had several conferences with Frank J. O'Neill, of New York, former coach here, and Alfred R. Cobb, captain of the 1917 team, and it is said that Dr. Day is anxious to have O'Neill return as coach here next fall.

Yesterday Dr. Day summoned every Pennsylvanian star, to succeed himself return as coach here next fall.

Yesterday Dr. Day summoned every member of the football team into his office and asked for opinions about the retention of Hollenbach.

Action on the matter one way or the other is expected within a few days.

LOSSES OF DREYFUSS

New York, Feb. 21.-No wonder Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pirates, has slashed his payroll right and left! Dreyfuss is said to have lost $70,000 since the sea-son of 1913. Last year his players drew $114,000 in salaries, yet they were unable to finish higher than sixth in the National League race. The owner of the Pirates has re-duced the pay of all the men on the reserve list except three. Hans Wagner, who received $10,000 last Wagner, who received $10,000 last season, has been reduced to $8.000 and has signed his contract without a protest. But Max Carey has refused $5,000 a year, the salary he received in 1914, 1915 and 1916. Manager Callahan says Dreyfuss's policy is justified.

HATCHETITES TO PLAY

mer event of its kind managed by that institution.

The athletic headquarters at 2027 C street, is the scenar of much activity. Entry blanks are being filled out and plans for the management of the crowds have been thoroughly examined in every detail so that spectators are afforded the best service.

Entries for the meet will be left open until Saturday night, Manager James has announced. Tickets for the event are being handled by Spauldings, 613 Fourteenth street.

In order to give the best possible service to spectators a corps of ushers has been organized which is instructed to keep the floor absolutely clear. No one will be allowed on the floor but officials.

Beside the ushers, under the direction of Harold H. Dutton, the George Washington five, one of the scenario of Harold H. Dutton, the George Washington five, one of the scenario of Harold H. Beside the ushers, under the direction of Harold H. Dutton, the George Washington University Coast Artillery Company has offered its services to act as marshals. The artillerymen will be in dress uniform and will add greatly to the floor organization.

Capt. Burns and Lieut. Hodgkins have issued orders to the men to be on duty March 2, the night of the meet at Convention Hall.

One of the stellar attractions of the big event is a South Atlantic 2-mile relay between Virginia and Georgetown. These two institutions have always furnished excellent competition and the crowd may look for a close event.

batter, is weak as a fielder. Jourdan,
Henry, and Hasbrooke are youngsters.
Jourdan comes from St. Joseph, Mo., where he hit over 300 and stole more than 30 bases.
Eddie Collins will be found at second base. Last year Eddie was field captain.
